Champagne and Wine

Champagne

2007 Taittinger Comtes de Champagne, Champagne, France

Champagne, with its cold climate, famous limestone soils and magnificent history, is home to the world's most famous sparkling wines. Family-owned for almost a century, Taittinger is one of the greatest independent Houses and Comtes de Champagne is their highly respected and revered prestige cuvée. Comtes de Champagne is made from 100% Chardonnay from Grand Cru villages in the Côte des Blancs - Avize, Cramant, Chouilly, Mesnil-sur-Oger and Oger. This is a brilliant champagne and a textbook example of Blanc de Blancs at its best, displaying great intensity and acid line, with complex and classic toasty notes from over 10 years of aging in bottle. Spectacular!

Krug Grande Cuvée, Champagne, France

Krug is undisputably one of the greatest Champagne Houses, and Grande Cuvée the archetype of their craftsmanship and savoir-faire. This prestige cuvée is a blend of more than 120 wines from ten or more different years. The champagne is then aged for a further 6 years in the cellars prior to release. Over 20 years are needed to craft each bottle. Stylistically, Grande Cuvée combines power with finesse- a brilliant Champagne of great quality and individuality.

White

2016 Gustave Lorentz Riesling Grand Cru Altenberg de Bergheim, Alsace, France

Wine regions are often intensely beautiful, but there are few to compare with Alsace in northeastern France. Tiny villages that appear unchanged for a thousand years cling to slopes that delve in and out of valleys and clefts in the sombre, wooded Vosges mountains. On these sunny slopes are some of France's greatest Grand Cru vineyards. The Altenberg vineyard at Bergheim, now organically cultivated, has been Grand Cru since the 12th Century, and the Lorentz family have farmed it for 7 generations. Their Riesling is from old vines and is gloriously dry, with the quivering acid freshness of lemon pith and lime zest, all wrapped in the richness of honeycomb and the dusty golden warmth of a barley field at harvest time.

2017 Domaine Laroche Chablis 1er Cru "Montée de Tonnerre", Burgundy, France

Headquartered in L'Obédiencerie, a former monastery in the village of Chablis in which monks had made wines from the 9th century, Domaine Laroche is directly linked to the history of the region. Winemaker Grégory Viennois works in tune with nature, encouraging low yields and natural ecology to produce fruit that is true to individual vineyard origins. "Montée de Tonnerre" is a south-west oriented vineyard and is merely separated from the Grand Cru "Les Blanchots" by a narrow ravine. The wine is a subtle mix of finesse and intensity, and its beauty is revealed by a long ageing in French oak foudre. The nose and palate reveals notes of star anise and spice, with a subtle, salty finish.

Red

2014 Albert Bichot, Morey-Saint-Denis 1er Cru "Les Sorbets", Burgundy, France

Morey-Saint-Denis may not be as famous as its neighbours, but Burgundy insiders know that this commune is filled with hidden gems. Five grand crus and twenty premier crus are found in this small appellation. Les Sorbets is a tiny premier cru vineyard of less than three hectares, making excellent wines filled with lively mixed berries, savory spices and roasted herbs. Albert Bichot, founded in 1831, is one of the most consistent negociants, owning 100 hectares of top Burgundy vineyards. Bichot tends to make flavorful, fruity, modern red Burgundies and this wine doesn't disappoint. Find vibrant cherries, supple tannins with one-third new oak.

2008 Château Rauzan-Ségla, Margaux, France

The wines from the village of Margaux are considered among the most scented, supple and intriguing of all the wines of Bordeaux. Château Rauzan-Ségla has for hundreds of years been regarded as one of the village's greatest properties, along with Château Margaux itself. So it made perfect sense when the perfume and fashion house of Chanel bought the vineyard in 1994, with the objective of turning Rauzan-Ségla's wine into a reflection of the scents and glamour which Chanel embodied. 2008 is a highly rated vintage, but one which is only now showing its classic style. Rauzan's mellow fragrance and soothing lush texture suits this vintage perfectly.

2013 Pieropan Amarone della Valpolicella DCG, Veneto, Italy

Anyone who enjoys full bodied, generous reds with richness and jammy fruits will love this Amarone. Its fruitiness and lush texture is well supported by firm acidity and structured tannins. The palate is powerful and intense, filled with dark chocolate and dried prunes. Amarone is a fairly new addition to the Pieropan family, best known for making top quality white wines from the neighbouring Soave region. In their signature style, they combine intensity, depth and structure in this delicious, opulent Amarone that is best with strong sauce-based and robust meat-based dishes.

Fortified

Dow's 20 Year Old Port, Douro, Portugal

With twenty years of cask aging, this Port has acquired a gorgeous aroma of dried flowers, toffee, sweet spices and dried figs. The tannins have softened and evolved into a silky texture with subtle, layered flavours that are persistent on the finish. A beautifully balanced Port that can be enjoyed on its own or with cheese or dessert.
